ORDER:-

In the reference first read above, the Commissioner, Endowments Department, Hyderabad has brought to the notice of the Government that the Founder Family Trustee of Padmavathi Venkateswara Swamy Temple, Kushaiguda, Ranga Reddy District has raised an allegation that temple land was allotted to 4 persons without obtaining any permission from the Competent Authority and also contrary to the rule and against the interest of the temple; he has appointed the Deputy Commissioner, Endowments Department, Hyderabad as Enquiry Officer to inquire into the matter and to submit report and the Deputy Commissioner, Endowments Department, Hyderabad in Rc.No.A4/2960/2006, dt.05.07.2006 has submitted his report, stating that the then Executive Officer has submitted proposals to the Commissioner, Endowments Department, Hyderabad on 18.12.2005 requesting to allot open site admeasuring 10 x10 Sq.Yds each to 4 applicants on monthly rent of Rs.400/- and when orders are awaited thereon, the applicant have forcefully occupied the site.

2. The Commissioner, Endowments Department has further informed that he has called for the explanation from the concerned officials of Endowments Department i.e., from Sri G.Vasudevan, the then Assistant Commissioner, Endowments Department and Sri R. Mohan Reddy, the then Inspector, Endowments Department, Hyderabad District (East). Since both Accused Officers were retired from service on attaining the age of superannuation, the Commissioner, Endowments Department has referred the matter, to Government, for taking further action against them, under rule 9 of Andhra Pradesh Revised Pension Rules, 1980.

3. Government have examined the proposal of the Commissioner, Endowments Department in detail and have issued Article of Charges against Sri G.Vasudevan, the then Assistant Commissioner, Endowments Department (now retired) and Sri R. Mohan Reddy, the then Inspector, Endowments Department, Hyderabad District (East) (now retired) under rule 9 of Andhra Pradesh Revised Pension Rules, 1980, vide references second to fifth read above and the Charged Officers have submitted their explanation, vide references sixth and seventh read above.

4. Government, after careful examination of the explanations submitted by the Charged Officers, with reference to the charges framed against them have felt that Sri G.Vasudevan, the then Assistant Commissioner, Endowments Department has personally visited the subject temple on 30.06.2006 and enquired into unauthorized occupations and submitted inspection report to the Deputy Commissioner, Endowments Department Hyderabad while recommending eviction proposals u/s 83 of the Act. He has made strenuous efforts for voluntarily vacating the premises by the encroachers and amicably settled the clearance of rental arrears due to the Institution. As such no pecuniary loss caused to the institution and the encroachers were reported to have vacated the place and the land is in possession of the institution. Further, in respect of Sri R.Mohan Reddy, the then Inspector, Hyderabad District (East), it was felt that his tenure in that place was only four months from 30.04.2006 to 31.08.2006 and it was reported that he was holding Full Additional Charge of two other institutions which were 100 K.Ms away from his working place. Hence, keeping in view of this and his short tenure of four months, it is perhaps not appropriate to fix up responsibility on him. Accordingly, it was decided to drop further action against both the charged officers, i.e., Sri G.Vasudevan, the then Assistant Commissioner, Endowments Department (now retired) and Sri R. Mohan Reddy, the then Inspector, Hyderabad District East (now retired) and hereby drop further action against both of them.

5. The Commissioner, Endowments Department, Hyderabad shall take necessary action, accordingly.
